HOW TO DOWNLOAD

Select any form in this guide, open its official California Courts page, then choose “Get form” to download the latest available PDF.

Important: a form request or application is not a signed court order.

PROVIDER & FAMILY-LAW FORMS

Provider declarations & custody orders

Begin with the controlling court order. Provider declarations document eligibility; they do not replace the court order.

Provider declarations

Professional vs. nonprofessional

FL-324(P)	Declaration of Supervised Visitation and Exchange Services Provider (Professional)	Get official form
FL-324(NP)	Declaration of Supervised Visitation and Exchange Services Provider (Nonprofessional)	Get official form

SAFETY & ABDUCTION

Safety and order attachments

These forms may establish additional restrictions affecting location, travel, custody transfers and exchange arrangements.

Safety and abduction prevention

Read every applicable attachment

FL-312	Request for Child Abduction Prevention Orders	Get official form
FL-341(B)	Child Abduction Prevention Order Attachment	Get official form
FL-341(C)	Children's Holiday Schedule Attachment	Get official form
FL-341(D)	Additional Provisions—Physical Custody Attachment	Get official form
FL-341(E)	Joint Legal Custody Attachment	Get official form

Reading court orders safely

A request asks the court to act; an order states what the court has decided. Review the entire signed order, its attachments, later orders, and any applicable protective orders.

Official practice standard

California Standard 5.20 explains the responsibilities of supervised visitation and exchange providers, including safety, intake, monitoring and reporting.

Read California Standard 5.20

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE FORMS

Protective orders & domestic violence

When domestic violence is involved, the provider must review current custody and protective-order terms before services.

Domestic violence and protective orders

California Judicial Council forms

DV-140	Child Custody and Visitation Order (Domestic Violence Prevention)	Get official form
DV-105	Request for Child Custody and Visitation Orders	Get official form
